Human nature is like water. It takes the shape of its container.
-Wallace Stevens

Dear Delightful Friends at Watt-Ahh:

If human nature, like water, takes the shape of its container, then the whole team at Watt-Ahh is hydrating the world in the shape of a heart.

We were thrilled to receive your update and delighted that compassionate customers continue to discover your delightful product. With each sip of healthy water, they give from their hearts to the children of Childhelp. Now that's a drink we can get behind!

Your slogan "natural energy for smart brains" says it all. When we put our minds towards intelligent aims, we create momentum that makes a positive impact on others. In this way we lend a helping hand but also nourish our souls.

Wishing each of you a Happy Thanksgiving!

For the love of a child,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Sara and Yvonne". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a long, sweeping underline that extends under the word "Yvonne".
